

I live in rural Missouri and am able to receive very few AM or FM radio stations. When I travel to the "big city" like St Louis or Springfield having accurate weather and traffic reporting is very helpful. So, I rely on my XM radio for general radio programming as well as news. Please consider allowing satellite radio to provide weather and traffic reporting.